Continental Shopper Weekend Itinerary

Calais Shopper

Make a short break out of your shopping trip across the channel for duty paid goods and cheap booze from the hypermarkets. Sample some true continental cuisine in one of the chic little restaurants as you watch the world go by.

Thursday/ Friday Day 1

We depart late this evening and head south to the port of Dover for an early morning ferry crossing to Calais. From here, we start our day with a visit to the huge Auchan Hypermarket in Coquelles. A paradise for serious shoppers, here you'll find special promotions throughout the year plus a fabulous selection of French food & wine along with restaurants open daily.

After lunch, we leave Calais to join the French autoroute for the short journey to Ostend where there will be some free time at leisure to explore Belgium's premier seaside resort. Ostend has so much to offer all year round, with its array of shops, markets, cafes, restaurants, casinos, lively bars and bustling fishing harbour.

Later this afternoon we check into our hotel in time to relax and freshen up before venturing into the town this evening. Experiencing the surrounding beautiful turn of the century Belgian brasseries is a must this evening, with the immaculately dressed waiters serving the enormous variety of rich national beers.

Saturday Day 2

Today is a free day for you to enjoy as you please. You may want to visit Bruges which is just a short journey by train or simply enjoy the wonderful surroundings of this lovely seaside town

Sunday Day 3

After breakfast we re-board the coach once again for the short journey to St Flora Castle, a former home of the King and Queen of Belgium. It is set in beautiful surroundings where you will be offered a complimentary drink and the opportunity to stock up on cheap cigarettes, tobacco and Belgian chocolate before heading back to Calais for the mid afternoon channel crossing to Dover.
